

March 23rd, 5pm - 7pm.

Main agenda of meeting:

- understanding of current provisions within the justice system for those with ADHD, with brief presentations from guest speakers

Guest key speakers:

Irene Jones – as a parent of a neurodiverse adult in the justice system and as a member of her local Restorative Justice Board, Irene will be giving the Group an insight into her experiences of ADHD within the Justice system; setting out her involvement and recommendations for how we can better support those with ADHD.

Lesley Clark – Novus Change. Novus provide education, rehabilitation support and opportunities to 60,000 adults across a number of HM Prisons in England and Wales. Lesley will be sharing her extensive experiences and expertise of providing support to individuals; to enable them to achieve their potential. With over 25 years of experience, Novus has been recognized for its offender rehabilitation provision, including outstanding functional, vocational and enriched education, employment support, professional service and transformation delivery, working collaboratively with local stakeholders.

Nicole Underwood will present recommendations from Takeda’s perspective from their discussions with patient groups around unmet need and the commitment to support those with ADHD.
Joe Johnson will then be following up on this case study.
