

May 25th, 6pm - 7pm.

Main agenda of meeting:

- understanding of current provisions within healthcare and particularly mental health provision for those with ADHD, with brief presentations from guest speakers

Guest key speakers:

Dara Coppell and Mark Dines-Allen from East Midlands Academic Health Science Network will be talking about their evidence and approach of East Midlands AHSN's ADHD programme.

Jane Roberts will be sharing with the APPG her personal experiences of losing her son with ADHD, alongside the her work to raise awareness and promote his legacy.

Dr Tony Lloyd, CEO of the ADHD Foundation Neurodiversity Charity will be presenting on a consensus statement regarding ADHD recently published and the work of the Foundation in being a patient led service offering life-span support.

We will be hearing from some of the Young Ambassadors from the ADHD Foundation Neurodiverse Charity, to share their stories and views of access to healthcare and mental health provision.

Industry & Employment